A deposit of €150 per accommodation is charged for the use of said accommodation. Claims for defects found upon return of the accommodation will be offset with the deposit. Otherwise, the deposit will be refunded as soon as possible after the end of the festival using the same payment method used by the renter to pay the deposit.

The accommodation is rented with inventory, which must be treated with care at all times. Smoking is prohibited in all accommodations. Any changes to the accommodation are prohibited; it is also prohibited to change the location of the accommodation without authorisation. Any costs incurred in restoring the accommodation to its original condition shall be borne by the person renting the accommodation (i.e. the person in whose name the booking is made).

The condition of the accommodation and the inventory must be checked by the renter immediately after check-in. If the renter does not report any defects to the accommodation and/or inventory (including missing inventory) immediately, but no later than 120 minutes after check-in, the condition of the accommodation and inventory (including any missing inventory) shall be deemed to have been accepted in accordance with the contract.

Any damage caused to the accommodation or inventory during the rental period must be compensated by the renter at prime cost, regardless of fault and even when the price exceeds the amount of the deposit. The renter is equally liable for damage caused by accompanying persons. Excluded from this liability are dirtiness and damages from weather-related incidents, for which neither the renter nor other persons are responsible, e.g. due to thunderstorms or hail. If the accommodation is extremely dirty and is not cleaned by the renter before return, the organiser is entitled to deduct a reasonable cleaning fee from the deposit.
